

Careers in Digital Video

Producer -Supervises all areas of the recording and editing process as well as the budget

Director -Supervises all camera shots, action, and actors of the production

Screen Writer -Creates original scripts for film or television productions

Gaffer -Manages all lighting during a production

Camera Operator -Follows instructions from the director to capture visually appealing footage during production

Editor -Manipulates the raw video and/or audio of the production to create the final artistic product.
